

2016 / 2017 Funding Source, Extent & Purpose

In addition to the state and federal government funding we receive, the Centre has received income from the following sources over the past financial year:

Bank Australia	$3,346.77	Interest received on cash deposits.
Department of Justice & Regulation	$14,329.51	Income generated from provision of services through local prisons. Services provided are typically of a generalist nature. Under agreement with the Department of Justice CHCLC issues invoices on a fee-for- service basis.
Department of Justice & Regulation	$21,680.00	Income received for provision of services through the Victims of Crime Assistance Tribunal (VOCAT)
Department of Justice & Regulation	$52,174.00	Family Violence Duty Lawyer Fund to provide services to Ararat and Stawell
Department of Justice & Regulation	$3,180.00	Community Legal Centre Assistance Fund to provide financial counselling to women affected by family violence
Federation University Australia	$4,500.00	Funding provided under agreement with the University for the provision of on-campus legal advice for students.
Federation University of Australia	$36,151.00	Grant provided via the Victorian Legal Services Board for the Central Highlands Health Justice Partnership, providing legal assistance to young people.
Membership & Donations	$1,893.72	Membership subscriptions and donations.
St Laurence Community Services Inc.	$ 909.09	Funding provided to host Work for the Dole participants.